GAME NOTES

It is a pleasure to welcome all of our Golden Rams fans to the final game of the 1980 season against the Sea Gulls of Salisbury State College.

Tonight is veterans' night at Farrell Stadium.

On Monday, Bruce Carthon was honored by the Philadelphia Maxwell Club as player-of-the-week for his outstanding performances this year. Only a sophomore this year, we look forward to his next two years on the Golden Rams squad. Congratulations, Bruce!

Also, in last week's NCAA national statistics, quarterback Ron Gaynor was honored by being listed in first place in passing efficiency in Division II. And running back Ron Perkins was listed as tenth in rushing in the nation—earlier this year he had been as high as fourth.

West Chester State vs. Salisbury State

This will be the first meeting between the Sea Gulls of Salisbury State and West Chester. The Sea Gulls have a good year going and are now 7-2-1. They have beaten Delaware State (27-18), Glassboro State (10-0), Hampden-Sydney (28-13), Catholic U. (31-7), Trenton State (13-10), Kean (13-7) and U. of D.C. (38-14). Their losses were to Frostburg State (0-38) and to Millersville State (40-33 last week) and their tie was with Bowie State (14-14).

Look for good running from sophomore Preston Lewis with 442 yards and junior quarterback Tony Bell with 433 yards. Bell has also passed 156 times and completed 74 for

Last week's tie with Cheyney has broken a string of non-tie games that has extended since a 6-6 tie with Delaware in 1945, the longest untied streak in the nation. And almost too late, in this issue is a story describing this record. Strange that it would be broken the very week before the story was run.

As a review, West Chester State now has a record of 4 wins, 4 losses and 1 tie. Wins were against Glassboro (35-14), Bloomsburg (41-17), Kutztown (19-0) and East Stroudsburg (26-13). Losses were to Delaware (28-7), American International (37-9), Millersville (14-13) and Bucknell (31-21). And last week we tied Cheyney 24-all.

1264 yards and 8 touchdowns. Primary receivers are sophomore Jimmy Jones with 26 catches for 453 yards and 3 TDs and Chuck Hebron with 21 catches for 412 yards and 2 TDs. Kicker Ken Olson has booted 47 points including 9-for-10 field goals and 20-for-23 extra points to give all the school's records. Quarterback Bell also is the school's record holder for total offense.

Last week for West Chester against Cheyney, Tyrone Scott ran for 101 yards and 3 touchdowns. Jim Zelenak kicked a field goal and 3 extra points for the final scoring. Quarterback Ron Gaynor completed 13-of-26 passes for 149 yards with 1 interception.

OTTO KNEIDINGER Head Coach

Otto Kneidinger, former assistant football coach and defensive coordinator for the University of Pennsylvania, begins his second season as head coach of the Golden Ram Football Team. Kneidinger brings to the position over 23 years of football coaching experience—eight years at the high school level, seven years at Lafayette College and eight years at the University of Pennsylvania.

A native of Bellwood, Pa., Kneidinger is a graduate of Pennsylvania State University where he played tackle for the Nittany Lions for three years and served as the team's co-captain in his senior year. He was a member of the All-State and All-East teams in 1954 and 1955 and a member of the Far-West Shrine Team in 1955. He received honorable mention for the All-American Team in 1954 and 1955.

SCOUTING REPORT:

DEFENSE

Salisbury Defense

WE WILL PLAY AGAINST A STRONG BASE 5-2 DEFENSE. WITH VERY LITTLE STUNTING, THEY DEPEND UPON GOOD READING AND FLOW PURSUIT TO THE BALL.

THE SECONDARY AFFORDS FAST STRONG RUN SUPPORT. THEY HAVE AVERAGED 2.5 INTERCEPTIONS PER GAME.

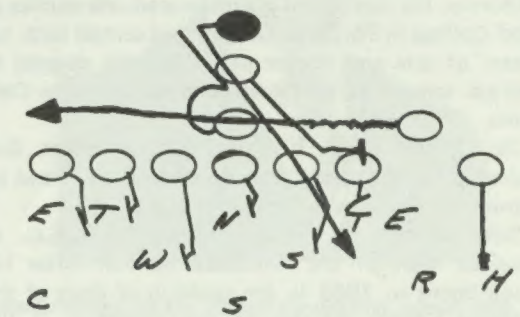

OUR OFFENSE WILL USE THE COMPLETE VEER PACKAGE (TRIPLE OPTION) WITH ACTION PASSES OFF THE SAME LOOK.

ERROR FREE OFFENSE IS OUR AIM TOWARD THE GOAL OF WINNING WITH A STRONG BALANCED ATTACK.

NOTHING NEW EXCEPT CONSISTENCY.

JOE LAULETTA
ASST. COACH.

OFFENSE

Salisbury Offense

The "Gulls" base attack will come from the I formation in both Twins + Pro sets.

They will base a strong running game from the Twins set, using the tailback Preston Lewis to pressure our corners.

To compliment their running attack the Gulls will use a short to medium range passing game. Our film breakdowns show that they prefer to throw from the Pro set, and will use motion to get that formation. The motion will cause us to use "check" coverage at the line of scrimmage.

In both their running and passing attack the key player is the QB, Bell. He is a great scrambler, as well as passer and makes their offense click.

We must make him scramble by using pressure up front in order to win on defense.

ART DOUGLAS The Voice of the Golden Ram Football Team for 25 Years

Many thousands of people in Chester County make Art Douglas a part of their morning along with their wake-up coffee and breakfast when they tune in WCOJ radio at 1410 on the dial. Art has been "the voice of Chester County" for the past 25 years, serving as program director and sports director, as well as copy writer and advertising salesman.

Art Douglas has also been the voice of the West Chester State Golden Ram football team for the past quarter century, doing the play-by-play for 237 Golden Ram games at home and away.

His regularity in bad times and good has been so remarkable that Daily Local News sports editor Bill Ordine wrote a special feature on Art when he missed a game in 1978 when his daughter, Karen, got married.

As Bill related, Art's record was slightly marred only twice before that—once in 1960 when a 103 degree temperature kept him from traveling to the opening game at Ft. Eustis, Va.; the other was when West Chester went to Orlando, Fla. in 1966 for the Tangerine Bowl which was televised.

Starting with the University of Delaware game in 1956 (West Chester won 10-7, their last win over the Blue Hens), Art has covered every play in the 237 games under five coaches—Glenn Killinger, Jim Bonder, Bob Mitten, John Furlow and now Otto Kneidinger.

During those long years, he has broadcast in rain and snow and in sweltering heat. One time he was forced to use binoculars to see the game from the roof of a building beyond the end zone, and another time he had to cover the game in a driving snow storm from the back of a pickup truck.

As Bill Ordine said, "The relationship between Art Douglas and West Chester State football has certainly turned out to be an enduring one." He quoted Art as saying, "Wherever they've gone, I've gone, and among my broadcasting chores, West Chester football is the most enjoyable . . . I don't take the defeats home with me as much as I once did, but I still have very strong emotions about it. It used to be, if they lost, I took it as hard as they did."

As Bill said, Art has been there spouting names and numbers and yardages and becoming as closely identified with West Chester football as Jock the Ram, the West Chester fight song or the colors purple and gold.

Besides doing the WCOJ morning program from 6 to 10 a.m., and the afternoon phone forum show, Art also broadcasts high school and college football and basketball games. Following the football season, Art moves right into basketball season, particularly covering the Mighty Macs of Immaculata College. It means long hours, but as Art said, "This is all I ever wanted to do since I was 10 years old. Sure, the hours are long, and sometimes I'm exhausted and feel like collapsing, but I know tomorrow will be another day. It's not really work because I enjoy it so much."

All of us here at West Chester State want Art to know how much we appreciate his devotion to the college. As Art says, "I consider myself lucky to be doing exactly what I want to do." We consider ourselves lucky to have Art doing his thing for us. All we could hope for is that he will continue doing it for another 25 enjoyable years.

Thank you, Art.

1980-81 Men's Basketball

This year's Golden Ram team will be young with the oldest veteran being junior Brad Pensyl who improved his scoring from 10.3 points per game in this freshman year to 14.2 last season. Also returning will be sophomore Rick Gillam who joined the team in January last season and immediately became the scoring leader, ending with an average of 19.2 points per game. Rick shot even better from the free throw line, averaging 88.4 percent, and in the process broke the East Coast Conference record of 34 free throws in a row by shooting 38 before missing one.

Kelvin Butcher, who averaged 4.8 points per game playing half the season spelling veteran point guard Butch Bontempo, should show great improvement this year. Coach Earl Voss also will be looking for much-needed help from transfer Mike Fusco (6'9", 212) who will be eligible to play in January, 1981. His addition, along with freshman Randy Alter (6'9", 250) should help the Golden Rams overcome the lack of rebounding experienced last season. Also adding to the height department will be returning David Wynn (6'6", 195). And 6'7" Victor Fleming will also give some experience to the squad, having played in nearly every game last year.

Also helping in the guard department is a transfer from Catholic University, Tom Green, the only senior on the squad. In addition, freshmen Dennis Arizin, Kevin Givens and Tom Fossile should give the Ram's added bench strength.

Earl Voss Head Basketball Coach

This will be Earl Voss' eighth year as head coach of the Golden Ram varsity basketball team. It will mark his 26th year as a head coach in which, hopefully, he will record his 300th career win. Coach Voss moved to West Chester State in 1971 as coach of the freshman squad. Following a successful high school coaching career, he was named head coach at Bloomsburg State College where he stayed for six years before coming to West Chester State. His record at Bloomsburg State was 81 wins and 42 losses. He was named head coach of the 1974-75 varsity team.

Voss is a 1952 graduate of West Chester State where he captained both the basketball and baseball teams. He received his M.Ed. from Temple University. A native of Wilmington, Delaware, coach Voss was recently inducted into his high school's hall of fame. Voss is an associate professor in the School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation and resides in West Chester.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL OUTLOOK

With seven varsity players returning, including the top shooters, and with some very good recruits, coach Ellen Sayers believes she'll have an improved season this year.

"I like to go just one game at a time," she said, "but I think we should have a winning record (last year the team was 12-15). The attitude of the team is excellent. We're hoping to qualify for regionals."

With the tallest player being 5'10", the team must make up in quickness and speed what it lacks in height. "If we learn how to box out the way we should and we can get the fast break started," Sayers said, "height shouldn't make as much difference."

In addition, the schedule this year includes five fewer Division I teams, leaving only the "Big Five" Philadelphia area schools. However, the Division II teams being picked up are the best in the East, including St. Mary's, Towson, Loyola and Kean.

1980 West Chester State Volleyball Team

The volleyball team is off to a good start, winning 6 of 9 matches. "Even though the team is young, with only one senior," said first-year head coach Kizzie Mailander, "we hope to qualify for the EIAIW Regional tournament at Southern Connecticut State College November 21-22. This would be the first time the team has gone to regionals since the volleyball program began.

"We have an excellent all-round team this year. The women have worked very hard and have improved tremendously. We have grown from a young, inexperienced team to a confident and experienced one which improves more every day. We are very pleased with the playing ability and attitude, and we are looking forward to a successful season.

"We have a good chance to place in the top three of the La Salle Invitational (Oct. 31-Nov. 1) and our goals are to win the Philadelphia Conference Cup and to participate in the EIAIW Regionals."

A physical education graduate of the University of Delaware, she was an assistant coach of volleyball at West Chester last year and was assistant volleyball coach at the University of Delaware the year before that. Kizzie has taught at clinics and summer camps, and last summer completed the Level II National Certification Course given by the U.S. Volleyball Association.

As an undergraduate at Delaware, Kizzie was a member of the varsity volleyball team for four years and a tri-captain for two years. In her sophomore year, the team participated in the national championships.

Also, as a sophomore and junior, she was a member of the U.S.A. East Women's Volleyball Team and played against the People's Republic of China touring team.

Among her goals as a coach are to see more recognition of volleyball and to improve the team's record, even though bigger schools are beginning to appear on the schedule.

Ron Perkins
The Golden Rams' Leading Rusher

Sophomore Ron Perkins, the Golden Rams' leading runner for the past two seasons, has had a lifetime of experience playing football, having started playing when he was only five years old. He started with the Midland, Pa. Red & White little league. When he moved up to the Midland Midgets, his father, a pretty good football player himself, was the coach.

"A lot of big colleges recruited him," Ron said of his father, "but he didn't go to college. He was a four year letterman at Midland High School, though."

Ron played midgets until he was 13, then went to junior high school where he was a starter in the eighth and ninth grades playing wingback, a running position. When he got to high school at Midland, he played both wingback and linebacker. The problem with the team was a lack of depth. In his sophomore and junior years, the team had about 40 players, but in his senior year only 18 players turned out and Ron played every minute of every game. They ended up 8-2 that year. "They had a lot of heart," Ron said.

When Ron was a freshman, the Midland team was runnerup in the Ohio Valley Conference Championship game. They were 9-1 in both his sophomore and junior years.

After his senior year, Ron was named All-Ohio Valley Conference linebacker and fullback, first team in both positions!

When football season ended, Ron went right into basketball in his junior and senior years. He had never played on a regular team before that, having only "fooled around" at it. He played forward on the varsity team, starting in his senior year.

Again, a lot of heart infused the basketball team and it won the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic League championship, beating Ford City as the team's center hit a 35 foot jump shot at the final buzzer.

An outstanding athlete, Ron also starred in track, winning a lot of medals and going to the state championships two years in a row where he competed in the 100 meters (ran 10.9 seconds) and 400 meter relays as anchor. He also did the long jump and the quarter mile in track.

Ron originally was recruited as a defensive back at West Chester State. He had been offered partial scholarship to several other schools. "My cousin, Eric Harriel, was playing here and I felt I had a little bit of family here. Then he decided he wasn't coming back to school and that left me out in the cold. It's hard being a way from home, but I'm accepting it. That's what I miss the most—not having my mother and father see me play."

Ron has two sisters who are not involved in sports. "My father has four brothers and three were outstanding athletes. Uncle William received a football scholarship to Kentucky. Uncle Gary and Uncle Jimmy went to Slippery Rock to play basketball.

"Sports is a way I feel I can help my family out in the future if it so happens I can do that. That's what I really want."

If Ron keeps going like he has, he may have a future in the pros. As a freshman last year, Ron led the team in rushing with 694 yards in 140 attempts, averaging 63.1 yards a game with seven touchdowns to lead the team in scoring. He was named to the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference Weekly Honor Roll once and was named ECAC Rookie-of-the-Week another time.

At the beginning of this season, Ron was riding high with confidence. He was looking forward to an undefeated season. "Hey, I think positive," he said. As it's turned out, the team has definitely improved, even though losing a couple along the way. A lot of what the team has done can be traced to the effort Ron has put forth.

This year Ron was named to the ECAC Weekly Honor Roll after the American International game (133 yards rushing) and after the Bloomsburg game (132 yards rushing, 2 touchdowns). He also has been a leader in rushing in the NCAA Division II national statistics most of the season, as high as fourth place after the Millersville game.

Ron currently leads the team in rushing with 846 yards, averaging 94 yards per game. With two more years to go, Ron stands a good chance of setting a West Chester State record for rushing. He may also help put the Golden Rams back into their previous winning ways.

ABOUT WEST CHESTER STATE

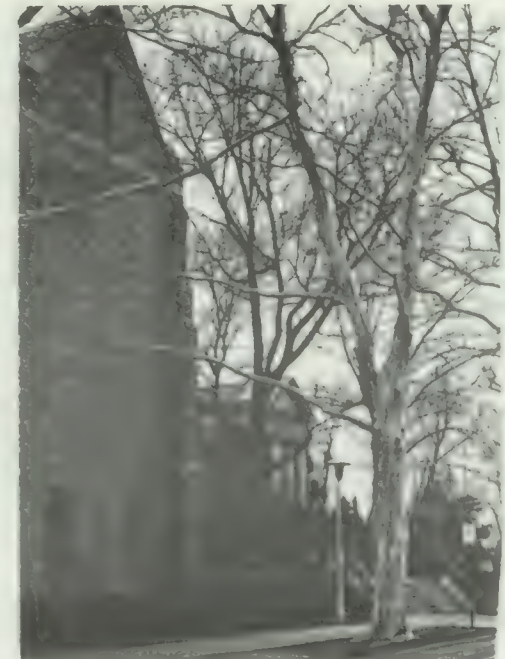

Located in a basically agricultural region within commuting distance of several major metropolitan areas, West Chester State College offers aspects of the worlds of city, country, small town and suburbia. It is about 25 miles west of Philadelphia and 17 miles north of Wilmington with easy access to New York City and Washington, D.C. by interstate highway and train.

Within short driving distance are many historical and cultural sites including Valley Forge, the Brandywine Battlefield, Independence Hall, Longwood Gardens, the Brandywine River Museum and Winterthur Museum.

Now in its second century, West Chester State College traces its history to the West Chester Academy, a private state-aided school which opened in 1812. Officially founded as West Chester State Normal School in 1871, the college became the first of the normal schools to be owned outright by the Commonwealth. It was renamed West Chester State Teachers College in 1927 when a four-year program of teacher training was initiated. A graduate program was inaugurated in 1959, and in 1960 the name was again changed to its present form with the institution of a broader education program.

As the second largest of the 14 institutions of higher learning in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's State College and University System, WCSC has a full-time undergraduate enrollment of approximately 5800. In addition, there are approximately 1400 part-time undergraduate students and about 1300 graduate students.

The college offers a number of degree and certification programs in the arts, education, health and physical education, music, the natural sciences and mathematics, and the social and behavioral sciences.

The Longest Streak In America

by Richard Greenwood

An old-time gridiron coach once said, "A tie is just like kissing your sister!" If this is so, then West Chester State's "sister" has been lacking this form of affection close to 35 years now. That's how long it's been since the Golden Rams have been tied in a football game.

The longest continuous streak still growing in the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) record book is the "Most Successive Games Without A Tie" record, which is currently being held by WCSC at 229 games.

The last tie was recorded when coach Glenn Killinger's undefeated Rams were deadlocked at 6-6 by the visiting University of Delaware Blue Hens. This tie was the only blemish on the Rams 3-0-1 record, after a two-year break of college football due to World War II.

The record has extended through five head football coaches: Dr. Killinger (1945-1959), James Bonder (1960-1965), Dr. Robert Mitten (1966-1971), John Furlow (1972-1978), and Otto Kneidinger (1979). With each gridiron challenge, the streak has continued and, hopefully, will continue indefinitely.

On Friday night, October 26, 1945, a capacity crowd at Wayne Field watched the Rams and Blue Hens play to a 6-6 deadlock. They were the last to witness the Golden Rams compete without achieving some type of definite decision (a win or loss).

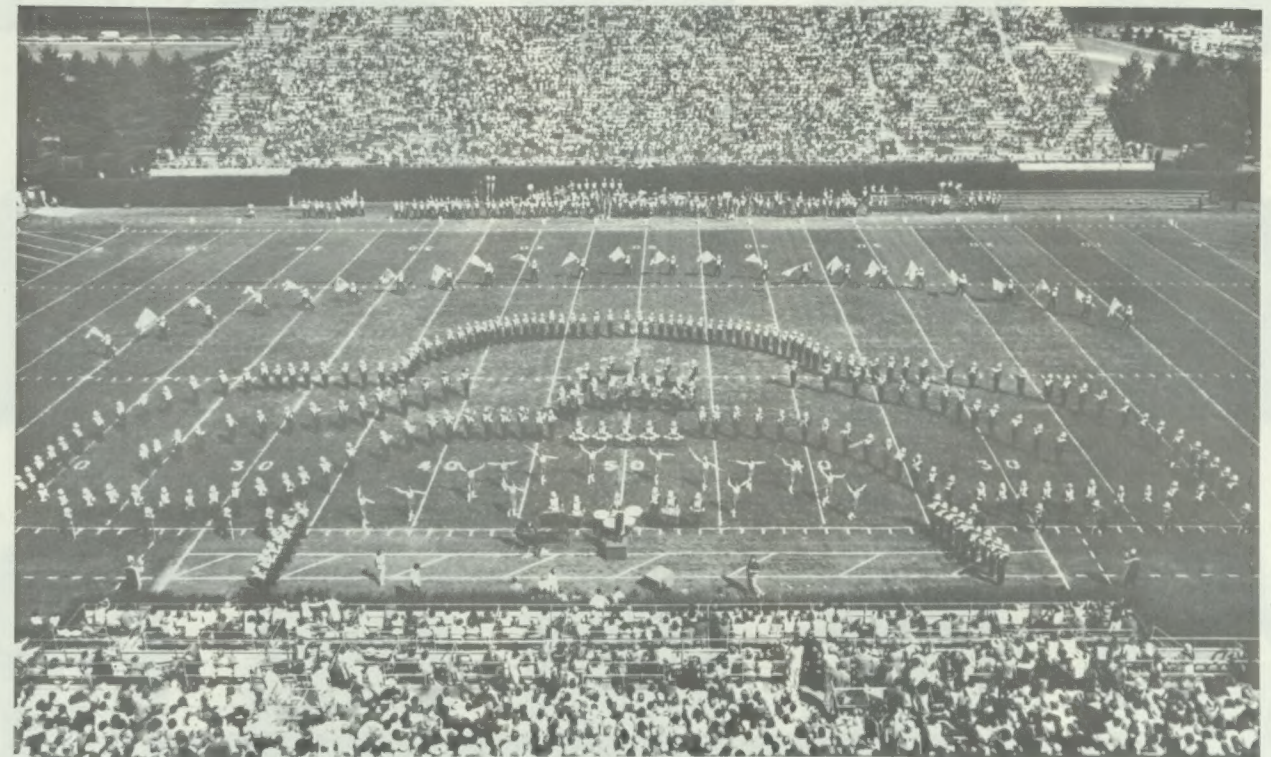

The Blue Hens got on the scoreboard first early in the second quarter, as Julian, a Delaware defensive end, picked off Dick Metzler's pass intended for Richard Boney and raced down the sidelines for a 55-yard touchdown. The attempted conversion kick was wide of the goal posts.

It didn't take the Rams long to retaliate, as they took the ensuing Blue Hens kickoff and marched down the field to deadlock the score at 6-6 when Ram fullback Charlie Shields threw a 45-yard touchdown pass to Dave Kirk. The Rams' attempt for an extra point was blocked and the last tie for nearly 35 years was recorded.

Dr. W. Glenn Killinger, football coach of the Golden Rams in 1945, remembers that game vividly and outlined his philosophy on ties, saying, "I never played for a tie!"

The West Chester State College GOLDEN RAM MARCHING BAND

One of the Nation's Finest Collegiate Marching Bands

A very special added attraction to every West Chester State College home football game is the halftime performance by the WCSC "Golden Rams" Marching Band. The group is now celebrating its 45th year as a major collegiate band. The "Golden Rams" band offers consistently unique field drills and innovative formations with a sound that has made them nationally famous and has earned the group the honor of being the featured halftime performers during American and National Conference games throughout the East.

With a membership of 250 musicians and 50 highly-talented band front personnel, the "Golden Rams" are under the direction of Dr. James R. Wells, Professor of Music, with assistance from Professor Harrison Roper. The drum majors for this season are Tina Socia, Dave Baney, and Nadebe Schroeder. Maryann Salamone and Tim John are the assistants to the director. The student director is Glenn Motson. The show designers for 1980 are Robert Everitt and Ralph Pace. Quartermasters are Brian Fischer, Pam Feeser, Scott Bear and Farryn Weiss. Randy Knauss, Joun Grimm, Paul Gerbino, and Jack Quinlan are Drill Instructors. The percussion instructor and arranger is Robert R. Gross and he is assisted by Scott Herd, Robert F. Gross and Steve Rook.

Ronnie Zepp, Dale Reban and Paul Fierro are silk co-captains. Rifle captains are Sue Stalford and Eileen McGinnis. Twirling captains are Nancy Slivka and Donna Heffernan. Librarians for 1980 are Jeannine Smith and Betsy Palmer. Mark Zortman is the announcer and the Public Relations Director is Tony Swanick.

RON GAYNOR
Ram's Quarterback is Well-Rounded Athlete

Ron Gaynor, the Golden Ram's quarterback, came to West Chester State to play baseball, but got sidetracked early when he found he had to choose between it and football.

At Dallastown High School, Ron was a three-letter man, playing varsity baseball and football all four years, and varsity basketball two years.

Last year Ron was starting quarterback for five games. He completed 34 of 77 passes for 515 yards and 3 touchdowns and also took the ball over himself for 2 more touchdowns.

This year, following the East Stroudsburg game, Ron has played in all 8 games, throwing 119 times and completing 63 passes for a very commendable 52.9 percent average. In fact, his passing statistics were good enough to place him first in the nation in passing efficiency in Division II following the Kutztown game. At that time he had completed 56 of 106 passes for a 52.8 percent with 5 interceptions, 960 yards, and 8 touchdowns.

This year, through the East Stroudsburg game, Ron has also taken the ball over 4 times for touchdowns.

Although a junior academically, Ron has two more years remaining of eligibility to play football because he red-shirted his freshman year.

At Dallastown High School, Ron began playing backup quarterback in his junior year while being listed also as a defensive back. In his senior year, he not only started at quarterback but also played defensive back.

"My nickname in high school was 'bridesmaid,'" he said, "because I was getting second best: I was backup quarterback, I made honorable mention All-County all four years in baseball although as a freshman I was one of three kept on the baseball team.

As a freshman in baseball, Ron started the last five games in the season and was a starter from then on. "I pitched, caught, and played third base," he said. "I rotated every third game. That's why I lost out on making the first team All-County my senior year. We played every team twice so no coach ever saw me play in the same position more than once. I had more votes than anyone else in the league but not enough at any one position to make the first team.

"When I was a freshman and sophomore, I played summer baseball in the Central League, and then went over to the Susquehanna League and the American Legion in my junior and senior years.

"I also played basketball as a guard/forward from the sixth grade on," Ron said. "In my senior year, we had a 17-5 record. I was more of a defensive player."

Ron's two brothers were also involved in athletics. Older brother, Mike, now in the Navy, played basketball and baseball. His younger brother, Jack, a senior in high school, is a track and cross country star and has won the MVP award. "Jack had a 4:27 mile last year," he said. "He went to the Florida State championships last year. He's also into kick boxing and regular boxing." His sister, Heidi, is in third grade.

Ron's hoping to be picked by the pros when he graduates. After that he hopes to go on to coaching. "I was light in high school, about 170 pounds," he said, "but I'm bigger now, 200 pounds. And I've been working to improve my strength. I can bench 315 pounds."

With two more years of college eligibility and already being named number one in the nation for his passing proficiency, Ron may get that chance to make it with the pros.
